FROM SECTION 1 _____

██████ explained that he and his wife, ████████ (VI), have been in a relationship for five years and have lived together for four years. They have no children in common. ██████ stated they had been drinking alcohol with some friends at their residence. ██████ advised their friends left for the night and that him and ██████ continued to drink on their back porch. ██████ stated he and ██████ got into a verbal argument which became physical. ██████ advised there was some pushing and shoving but refused to elaborate on the incident. Deputies observed a small amount of dried blood on ██████'s left cheek and left hand. ██████ again refused to explain in detail on how he was injured. ██████ also refused medical treatment for any of his injuries. When questioned about the firearm, ██████ explained that he has a concealed carry permit and always has his firearm on him. ██████ advised he secured the firearm prior to Deputies arrival. ██████ explained that the firearm was never used or mentioned in the altercation. Overall ██████ was uncooperative with questioning and stated he would wait to see what ██████ told law enforcement prior to him speaking about the altercation. ██████ also advised there were no witnesses to the incident. Deputies then made contact with ██████ who corroborated statements made about drinking with friends earlier in the evening and after they had left the altercation with ██████ that followed. ██████ added that she was playing some music on the radio that ██████ did not like which aggravated him. ██████ and ██████ then got into a verbal argument and ██████ attempted to go inside the residence. ██████ explained as she attempted to go through the back door into the residence ██████ blocked her path and pushed her back. ██████ then admitted she fought back in an attempt to escape the altercation and get inside. ██████ advised ██████ pushed her into the door frame causing her to strike her head and fall to the ground. Deputies observed a golf-ball sized contusion to the left side of ██████'s forehead. ██████ refused medical attention for her injury. ██████ further explained ██████ then grabbed her to lift her from the ground and that he pointed his firearm at her head simultaneously. ██████ stated that he did not verbally threaten to use the firearm while it was pointed at her. ██████ stated she was in fear at that time and questioned ██████ on what he planned to do, which he did not respond. She described the firearm as a black handgun, unknown make and model. ██████ then advised both of them separated and she went to the bedroom and got into bed. She explained she could hear when ██████ got on the phone and called ██████. She then observed ██████ go into the closet and place his firearm in their safe before going outside to wait for Deputies to arrive. ██████ confirmed there were no witnesses to the incident. ██████ completed a sworn written statement detailing the incident and advised she did not call ██████ and did not want to pursue charges. ██████ provided deputies with access to ██████'s firearm a Walther PPS 9mm handgun (serial # AY9427), along with two magazines, and six 9mm rounds from the safe located in the bedroom closet. ██████ refused to relinquish her firearm which she stated was hidden elsewhere in the residence. She described her firearm as a Glock 9mm handgun. Based on the statements made and the evidence observed Deputies were able to establish probable cause to arrest ██████ for domestic violence battery for intentionally striking ██████ against her will and aggravated assault for intentionally and unlawfully threatening ██████ via the act of pointing the firearm at her head and placing her in fear that such violence was imminent.
