On Sunday, January 2nd, 2022, at approximately 1235 hours, Deputy Bacon responded to the intersection of Dumas Drive and Gray Court, Deltona, in reference to a shooting which just occurred. Prior to arrival, deputies were informed a Hispanic male, later identified as [REDACTED] (D1), was fleeing the scene after shooting into an occupied vehicle in the area. Volusia Central Communications advised the above mentioned male was fleeing on foot on Dumas Drive towards Montecito Avenue, Deltona. Upon arrival, deputies located the above mentioned male running east on Arslan Street from Montecito Avenue, Deltona, where he was subsequently detained. Deputy Bacon then made contact with the reporting party, [REDACTED] (W1), a FedEx driver, who advised the following:

On Sunday, January 2nd, 2022, at approximately 1230 hours, [REDACTED] was driving east on Dumas Drive when he observed [REDACTED] and a female, later identified at [REDACTED] (V1), arguing in front of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then grabbed [REDACTED] from the second residence she ran to and carried her back to the road against her will. [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] then was able to return to her vehicle and fled the scene traveling east bound on Dumas Drive. [REDACTED] completed a sworn written statement detailing what occurred.

Deputy Bacon then made contact with the resident of [REDACTED], [REDACTED] (W2), who advised the following:

He didn't initially see anything from within his residence but heard an argument outside followed by a loud popping sound at approximately 1230 hours.
