AFFIDAVIT CONTINUATION

FROM SECTION 1

Prior to arrival at the residence, Deputy Campbell contacted [REDACTED] by telephone. [REDACTED] indicating he was working in Seminole County, but had received suicidal text messages from [REDACTED] within the hour. [REDACTED] took a screenshot of the text messages and e-mailed them to Deputy Campbell. Deputy Campbell observed the text messages from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] to contain the following:

"I have to find drugs that I can take that will let me go to sleep and not wake up again I have my guns sitting here but I don't think I could pull the trigger I will have to take drugs in order to end it and I have a whole container full of painkillers "

The second text message contained the following:

"Nobody understand Jay my brain gives me no rest from this it tortures me all day and all night"

Deputies then responded to the residence in attempt to contact [REDACTED]. Initially, deputies on scene were unable to locate [REDACTED] and observed his white, Ford Flex (FL Tag [REDACTED]) to be missing from the driveway. As deputies prepared to facilitate a ping of his cellular phone location, [REDACTED] arrived on scene. He was then contacted by law enforcement and admitted to sending the text messages and "going through a hard time". [REDACTED] appeared uninjured and stated he had not consumed or done anything to hurt himself. Deputy Campbell determined without intervention, there was a substantial likelihood that [REDACTED] would hurt himself and or attempt to end his life. He was subsequently placed into protective custody under the Baker Act.

The screenshot of the text message provided by [REDACTED] was uploaded to Evidence.com

During [REDACTED]'s interview with deputies, he refused to provide the whereabouts of his 9MM firearm.

[REDACTED] was transported to Stewart Marchman Healthcare in Daytona Beach for evaluation.

A risk protection order was drafted due to [REDACTED]'s threat of utilizing a firearm to end his life.
