On Thursday, July 11, 2024, before 11am, [REDACTED] had her purse stolen from inside of her white [REDACTED] passenger vehicle bearing Florida license plate: [REDACTED] while in the parking lot of the Taylor Place Apartments (1575 S. Woodland Boulevard, Deland).

Around 1pm, [REDACTED] received a notification on her cellphone that someone had used her Capitol One credit card, which had been in her purse that was stolen. She stated the notification advised the credit card was used at Checkers (133 S. Woodland Boulevard, Deland). She said she drove to Checkers and advised her boyfriend, [REDACTED] and her daughter, [REDACTED] were with her. She advised when she arrived at Checkers she spoke with employees at the restaurant, who stated the people who used the credit card were still in the drive thru line waiting to receive food. The employees pointed to the vehicle, which was a black Toyota Camry. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] approached the vehicle, [REDACTED] was on the driver's side and [REDACTED] was on the passenger side. [REDACTED] stated the front passenger window was down and she observed her purse in the vehicle. She further stated the driver, who she described as a white female was holding one of her ([REDACTED]) stolen credit cards. She said she grabbed her credit card and purse from within the vehicle and the driver drove off. She advised her foot was run over and they last saw the vehicle travel west on W. Georgia Avenue, Deland. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] described the vehicle as a black Toyota Camry with a specialized license plate that was blue and yellow in color.

[REDACTED] contacted law enforcement but she received no response and was not able to report the incident. [REDACTED] stated she again reported the incident to the Deland Police Department a couple hours later and this time the Deland Police Department responded and took a report.

Around 4:25pm, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were still in [REDACTED]'s white [REDACTED] passenger vehicle in Deland. They noticed a black Toyota Camry with the same-colored specialized license plate. [REDACTED] advised she began to follow the vehicle, which was speeding and using evasive driving techniques to get away. While following the vehicle (black Toyota Camry), [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] all advised they saw the rear windows of the black Toyota Camry go down and two black males stick their bodies out the window. They all stated they saw the two occupants begin to fire rounds at them. Just prior to the shooting, [REDACTED] was using the video function on her cellphone and was able to capture the license plate of the black Toyota Camry (Florida license plate: 57GJP). You can also hear the gunshots coming from the black Toyota Camry.

The registration for Florida license plate: 57GJP showed registered to [REDACTED] with an address of [REDACTED] which is off [REDACTED] Deltona.

Law enforcement checked the license plate on the black Toyota Camry through LPR's (License Plate Reader) and saw that it hit a license plate reader at 4:32pm [REDACTED]

It was learned that the shooting took place on S. Spring Garden Avenue. Multiple shell casings were located at [REDACTED]. The Volusia Sheriff's Office Crime Scene Unit responded and located 10 shell casings. The shell casings located were from two different caliber ammunitions.

This license plate reader is between the incident and [REDACTED] and the camera showed the vehicle traveling in the direction of [REDACTED]

At 5:08pm, Sergeant Charles of the Volusia Sheriff's Office arrived at [REDACTED] and saw the black Toyota Camry was backed into the driveway. At that time the vehicle was unoccupied. Sergeant Charles watched the vehicle from a distance and eventually saw [REDACTED] exit [REDACTED] and enter into the black Toyota Camry. Sergeant Charles stated he could see [REDACTED] utilizing a white cloth and appeared to be wiping down the back passenger area of the vehicle.

At approximately 6:22pm, Sergeant Charles observed 4 individuals, one being [REDACTED] exit [REDACTED] and enter into the black Toyota Camry. As the vehicle drove off of the property and onto the roadway, Sergeant Charles conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle. The occupants were secured and identified. In plain view, in the center console area was a Glock handgun and on the floorboard of the driver seat was a Checker's bag. [REDACTED] was the driver, the front passenger was identified as [REDACTED] and the two rear passengers were identified as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Deputies requested Pratts Towing to the scene tow the black Toyota Camry to VSO Evidence Facility pending further investigation.

Detective [REDACTED] and Detective [REDACTED] were interviewing [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at the time the vehicle was located. All three advised the same thing, that two occupants in the back of the Toyota Camry shot at them numerous times. They all advised they were scared, and everyone still appeared to be shaken up from being shot at. [REDACTED] briefly advised her purse contained several items of jewelry at the time it was stolen. [REDACTED] was recording a video on her cell phone during the incident. Detectives reviewed the provided video and could hear a noise consistent with gunshots along with [REDACTED] screaming "they're shooting as us."

A show up was completed and [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] as the shooter. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] as the driver of the black Camry at the Checker's earlier in the day.

Detective [REDACTED] and Detective [REDACTED] interviewed all four occupants of the black Toyota Camry. All subjects were informed of their Miranda Rights prior to the questioning. [REDACTED] refused to speak with detectives.
